

The View into the Open *) –

- This time not as a category of Art but as art of Politics.

Daily I open the News-Paper , look at the TV-News ; and I look in Childrens eyes: twisted at the effort, sad, full of tears , fearful hoping.

“Small adversities : Who perceive this, he can help children” so in modification of a known citation of Janusz Korczak (vgl. ‘Who can educate children?’, in: Sämtliche Werke, Bd.9, S.435)

Awareness is an event, which at our senses assemble pictures in our brain, computes them with the sum of our available informations, and create so a truth, which includes a stimulative nature. This as citizens of a modern democratic state under the rule of law asks us more to take action than these tiring daily announced ideas of actions by politicians for structure measures, national, Europe-wide, UN-wide ; which everytime are too late and includes despairation to gain the upper-hand about the situations.

For not to be misunderstood: the democratic elected members of parliament, official functionalists, executive persons (not this ones, who yell out weekly their misunderstanding ‘imperative mandate’ sentence ‘they are the people’) sometimes are insufficient thinking and doing; fellow man must be supported to transfer political ideas in political actions , how ever it will be a painful slow process!

But children eyes are more : a roof over the head, dry clothes and shoes, warmth, and the learning support for these mostly really new life-situation of the children and their parents needs money.

Seventy years after liberation of fascism I read: “Every five seconds dies a child” (Jean Ziegler: Wir lassen sie verhungern, btb 2013, München), and shortly later: “Every child which today dies by hunger has been murdered” (vgl. Frankfurter Rundschau 5.5.2015, Steven Geyer: Das Recht der 99 Prozent) - to say nothing of the uncounted children, which directly murdered worldwide : through barrel-bombs, by ideological-religious be-blinds at the escape in search for a humane life; and – even in our ‘western’ societies –through the own parents!

Katja Tichomirowa writes (1.6.2015 Frankfurter Rundschau: Zwischen den Fronten) : „The passed year had been extrem difficult for children in conflict regions (which now we see are all over the world) the report of UNICEF says: round 230 million girls and boys worldwide grow up in war and crisis-regions. 30 millions are with their parents or alone in escape from terror and violence...

UNICEF demands us for more engagement for refugee-children and take everyone of us in duty to absorb them well.

Instead its bare of every understanding : refugees – human beings, which wants to find reception in Germany (or elsewhere) are confronted with an furious mob, who wish them to hell ; during the police , who is there to protect them, says ‘its not an pogrom-atmosphere. How we should understand these hateful yelling against refugees? As an expression of deepest sorrows? And how we explain to an (refugee-)child, what makes the yelling crowd so furious?’

Looking for answer a’la Korczak: After the human catastrophes of the last 100 years there are everytime attempts to create human regulations among mankind. Our today United Nations are constructed out of national categories of the past. What should be if we construct it at childrens categories = human search for answers to questions like “Do Your parents weep also when You will be shot?” Where is the plenum of the UN in which independent from yesterday constructs like the ‘security-council’ (security of whom?) ad hoc is able to come together, and the world-community appointed their members to step up against the barbarians at the ‘global village’ on a subject, where it will hit everytime at the organized capitalism –the money- and stop any financial transactions in contact and between these barbarians ?

The children of the world needs the money that the barbarians steel from them!

“It is a social-scissor which at the end will hurt all of us. In Germany only could increase the 100 super-rich persons according to ‘Manager Magazin’ their fortune within 12 month to 336,6 billions Euro. Redistribution is maybe a too nasty word , but how it could be with sharing ? (K.-H.Karisch in Frankfurter Rundschau 1.11.2013) .

Lets make clear : today a lot of these from us recognized children and youngsters had no school-experiences since four and a half years. Learning happens in all-day-war-life , and war is everytime a wrong inhuman teacher. What are our often implored ‘values’, which the European (value-)Union hide so perfect ? “What is with the values, which are not bargained at the stock exchange?” (so former German President Johannes Rau asked once).

Korczak gives a central important answer: “Children will not become human beings, just they are ones!” So human rights are children rights. And its true: either central human standards in a human society goes without saying or it is futile to impart them by cognition. Also the sentence is true from Antoine de Saint Exuperie: “You will see well only with Your heart”.

There, where members of the German Janusz Korczak Society , of the International Korczak Association, can subsidise children directly, I wish to encourage them to do this offensively – even against expelled mis-/non-/ understanding for the fact “we must clear a lane for the human factor, cause from law-fetishism there is a direct way to concentration camps Auschwitz and Buchenwald” (Fritz Bauer, the former general attorney of federal state Hessen in Germany 1963).

This many hundred millions of human beings, especially the small ones, which are abandoned the murder worldwide through hunger and war, they have to rely on our wholeheartedly solidarity.

Take it to our hearts, what Mercedes Sosa begged for in her wonderful song:

Solo le pida a Dios
Que el dolor no me indiferente
Que la reseca muerte no me encuentre
Vacía y sola, sin haber
Hecho lo suficiente.

Only one I begged from God
That the pain should not let me indifferent
And that the pale death do not
Find me alone and empty, without I have done
What had been necessary.

“What You have done one of my minor brothers, You have done to me”.

Vamos: “Change the world”

( so the title of the newest book from Jean Ziegler., Bertelsmann Verlag 2014)

*) so the title of the annual meeting of the International Korczak Association 2015 , 21st Nov.15
Munich; here this text first published

Fin ; Klaus-Peter Krahl , Member of the council of German Janusz Korczak Society ; Nov.2015